THE BEST AIRPORT TRANSPORTATION GUIDES

Private: Transfer Options from Chania Airport to City of Chania

DISTANCE
15 km
View the Map

A summary and comparison of all transportation options 1287 Travelers so far Last updated Mar 2017

How to get from Chania airport to city centre

There are two transfer options to get from Chania airport to the city centre of Chania, taxi or bus. The bus is the cheapest but slowest transfer option. It costs only 2.50€ for a one way ticket, but it takes 90 minutes, including waiting time. Taking a taxi will only take 30 minutes, but costs a flat rate fee of 30€.

Welcome

You can pre-book a taxi with English-speaking driver with Welcome Pickups.

PRICE	TIME	AVAILABILITY
30€	25'	24/7

Book Now

Taxi

Taxis are available directly outside the arrivals terminal. They don't have a specific colour, but have a 'Taxi' sign on top.

PRICE	TIME	AVAILABILITY
30€	30'	24/7

Read More

Bus

There is one bus that runs only a few times a day from Chania airport to the city.

PRICE	TIME	AVAILABILITY
2.50€	90'	6:00 - 22:45

Read More

View detailed Comparison

How to get from Chania airport to the city centre by taxi

Taking a taxi from Chania airport to the city centre is by far the easiest transfer option. The journey will only take 30 minutes in light traffic, and the driver will drop you off at your door.

Taxis in Crete are charged at a flat rate, and the journey from Chania airport to the city centre will cost 30€.

PHOTOS (3)

Taxis at Chania airport

COST
30€

TRIP DURATION
30 minutes

CONVENIENCE

VALUE

SAFETY

Taxis are available 24/7 from Chania airport

Taxi fare from Chania airport to the city centre

Taxis at Chania airport are charged at a flat rate billing system based on zones. So long as your final destination is within the city centre ring of Chania, the journey will cost 30€.

Where do I get it from?

As soon as you walk out of the arrivals exit, you will see a line of taxis waiting. The taxis in Chania airport don't have a specific colour, but they do have a 'Taxi' sign on top.

Convenience

Taking a taxi from Chania airport to the city centre is quick and easy. Unlike the other transfer option, taxis run 24/7, so no matter what time of day you land, you will always have an easy transfer.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Although taxis at Chania airport are available 24/7, if you land at a busy time, you will still have to wait in line for your taxi. To avoid this, you can book a taxi online in advance.

USEFUL TIPS

- Let the driver know you are aware of the flat rate fee.
- Be sure to have cash in Euros, the drivers can't accept card payments.
- Taxis at Chania airport don't have a specific colour, instead they are marked by a 'Taxi' sign on top.
- Although the city centre is only 15 km away, the journey can take up to 40 minutes in rush hour.

How to get from Chania airport to the city centre by bus

There is one bus that runs from Chania airport to the city several times a day. It runs from 6:00 to 22:45 during the week, with slightly altering times on the weekend. Tickets cost 2.50€ one-way, and the total journey time is 90 minutes, taking into account the average waiting time.

PHOTOS (4)

Buses at Chania airport

COST
2.50€

TRIP DURATION
90 minutes

There is an average waiting time of 2 hours

CONVENIENCE
★★☆☆☆

VALUE
★★★☆☆

SAFETY
★★★★☆

Buses are available from 6:00 until 22:45

How much is a bus from Chania airport to the city centre?

A one-way ticket costs 2.50€ for an adult, 1.90€ for students, and 1.25€ for anyone with a disability card. Tickets can be purchased from the driver as you enter the bus.

Where do I get it from?

As soon as you disembark your aircraft into the arrivals gate, follow the exit signs and head to the arrivals terminal exit. You will see the small bus stand right in front of you.

Convenience ★★☆☆☆

Although the bus runs directly into the city centre from Chania airport, it's by far the least convenient transfer option. The bus only runs a few times a day, there is a large waiting time between each bus, and if you arrive after 23:00, there will be no bus service until the next day.

Timetables

KTEL

Bus from Chania airport to the city centre

View More

EDITOR'S NOTE

If you happen to arrive to Chania airport just before a bus is about to depart, then this is a very cheap transfer option. However, if you arrive after 11pm, or when a bus has just left the airport, you may need to think about a different transfer option.

USEFUL TIPS

- You can pay for your tickets on the actual bus.
- Students get 25% off the ticket price, and people with a valid disabilities card get 50% off.
- Be sure to have cash with you.
- If your luggage is over 25kg, then the driver may refuse to load it onto the bus.

Found this useful? Share it with other Travelers!

Share on Facebook

Share on Twitter

Share on Google+

DOWNLOAD AND READ LATER

Download the Chania Airport Transportation Guide for FREE

CHANIA TAXI PRICES

GET A PRICE QUOTE

From (address, hotel, place)

To (address, hotel, place)

Time

Passengers

Luggage