Fiumicino Airport to Rome City Centre

Fiumicino is a coastal town located outside of Italy's capital city. To transfer from the airport to Rome, you can travel by train, bus or taxi. The cheapest mode of transport is by bus and depending on traffic, it will take about 50 minutes to reach the city centre. If you choose to travel by train, you have the option of using the direct line or the local one. There are no trains or buses after midnight, so if you arrive in the airport late, you will have to hire a taxi to get into the city.

Convenience ★★★★☆

Taxis in Rome

Traveling by taxi means that you can get from door to door in no time without the hassle of train transfers and waiting for buses. This is the most convenient means of transport.

Safety ★★★★★

Taxi is always the best option when it comes to travelling from the airport to the city centre. Registered Italian taxis are white with the cities crest on the side. Alternatively, you can opt for a pre-ordered private car hire.

Pre-booked private transfers cars at Fiumicino Rome Airport

Tips

- The taxis in Rome can take up to 4 people with 4 luggage.
- There is a flat cost of 48 € within the Aurelian walls.
- Feel free to inform the driver that you are aware of the 48€ fixed cost inside the Aurelian Walls.
- It will take you approximately 45 minutes from Fiumicino airport to the city center depending on traffic.
- The Termini station (central railway station) is inside the Aurelian Walls.

Value for money ★★★☆☆

For all that taxis have the plus of convenience and safety, it does come with a price tag. However, the flat rate price ensures a set price – don't hesitate to inform your taxi driver that you are aware of the flat rate fare.
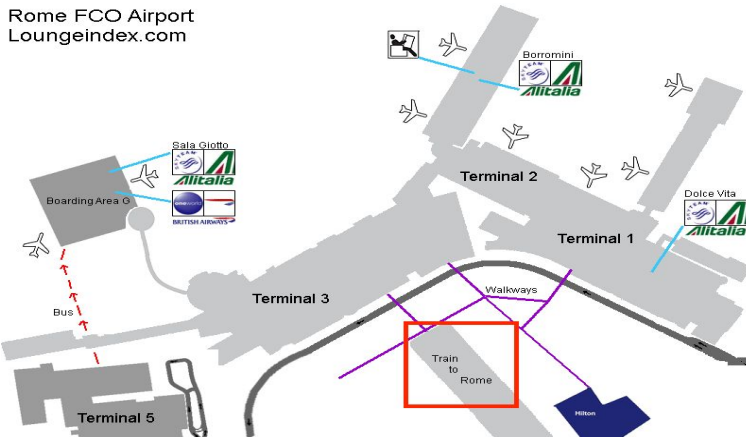

Editor's note

Taxis are perfect for door-to-door travel and ideal for late night transfers. However, it is not the cheapest mode of transport. On top of this, because of Rome's busy traffic, it may take longer to arrive to your destination.

Fiumicino Rome Airport to the city centre by Train

Where do I get the Train

Rome FCO Airport
Loungeindex.com

The train station is located outside Terminal 3. Signpost will direct you to the station and it takes between 10-15 minutes walking time to get from the airport to the train station.

Prices

The Leonardo Express one way ticket: 14€
The local train FL1: 8€

Availability

The Leonardo Express, which goes direct from the airport to the city centre departs every 30 minutes. It runs daily from 6:38 to 23:38.

The second option is the FL1 that stops at Trastevere, Ostiense, and Tiburtina train stations on the way to the city centre. The train departs every 15-30 minutes and starts running at 5:58 a.m until 11:38 p.m. This is a convenient option if your destination is Campo de' Fiori, Piazza Navona or the Pantheon area.

Convenience ⭐⭐⭐☆☆

The Leonardo Express from Fiumicino Airport to Rome

Because of its regular departure times, you won't be hanging around the train station for too long. The Leonardo Express takes you direct to the city centre, while the local train may take a little longer with a few stops on the way.

Safety ⭐⭐⭐☆☆

You should always take care of your belongings when traveling on public transport. If you are travelling after 10pm, it is better that you choose an alternative means of transport such as taxi or private car hire.

The local FL1 train

Tips

- The first train from Rome Airport starts at 5:58am and the last one at 23:38pm, keep in mind that there is no train after midnight
- The Leonardo Express departs from the airport every 30 minutes, during rush hours it can be more frequent
- For passengers with disability or reduced mobility Leonardo Express is equipped with dedicated seating and restrooms
- Train tickets can be bought either online or from the ticket machines before your entrance to the platforms
- Make sure that you validate your tickets at the designed validation machines, after validation the tickets are valid for 90 minutes

Value for money ⭐⭐⭐⭐☆

If you are on a tight budget, it is best if you opt for the bus transfer as the Leonardo Express is a little pricey.
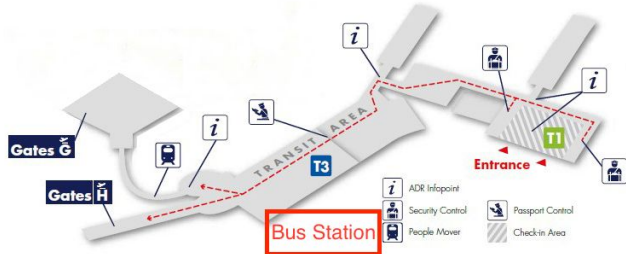

Editor's note

The train is the fastest way to travel into the city and guarantees an on-time arrival. The Leonardo Express is a better option if you are hasty to reach your destination while the local FL1 train is ideal if your destination is Campo de' Fiori, Piazza Navona or within the Pantheon area.

Ciampino Rome Airport to the city centre by Train

Where do I find the Train

The Ciampino airport is not directly connected to the city by train. For you to travel via train, you have to take a bus from the airport to Ciampino railway station, which is located outside the arrivals. From there you can take a train to Roma Termini.

Prices

The bus journey from the airport to Ciampino railway station costs 1€ and the train to the city centre costs 1.50€ one way.

Availability

The bus departs every 30 minutes and takes 15 minutes to travel from the airport to the train station. There is a train every 20 minutes from Ciampino railway to Roma Termini. The whole trip will take about 1 hour. Unfortunately the train doesn't run after midnight.

Convenience ⭐☆☆☆☆

Local train

The metro is not that convenient since cars leave the station every 30 minutes. The absence of a direct line between the Airport and Piraeus, combined with the low quality service of line 1, makes it even less convenient.

Safety ⭐⭐⭐☆☆

When using public transport, it is important that you keep an eye on your personal belongings.

Convenience ⭐☆☆☆☆

Local train to Civitavecchia port

Unfortunately, there is no direct train from the airport to Civitavecchia Port - you would have to change at the Roma Trastevere station. That's why we gave the train only one star for convenience.

Safety ⭐⭐⭐☆☆

Naturally, public transport is less safe than taking a taxi to your destination.

Civitavecchia train station

Tips

- There are no trains after 23:38 that depart from Fiumicino Railway station
- Keep in mind that you will need to change a train line that will need some walking with luggage, and very likely going up and down flights of stairs
- Train tickets can be bought either online at Trenitalia site or from the ticket machines before your entrance to the platforms
- Make sure that you validate your tickets at the designed validation machines
- From Civitavecchia train station to the piers you need to take a local "Argo" bus - ticket costs 2 €

Value for money ★★★☆☆

Taking a two-hour train to the port may seem quite a lengthy trip, however the price of a ticket makes the trip worth it.

Editor's note

The quickest and most convenient way to travel from the airport to the cruise port is by taxi. Although it is a little more costly than the train, you will arrive at the port in no time. To ensure you get to the port on time, it is advised to pre-hire a private car before arriving at the airport.
